Shri Mandeep Singh Randhawa, IPS

(DCP, Central District, Delhi Police)

For distinguished police service

*A*N officer of the 2006 batch of the IPS, AGMUT cadre, Shri Mandeep Singh Randhawa is an upstanding persona in the domain of law and order with a covetable record. His diligent efforts, exceptional leadership and professionalism transformed the Delhi Police into a people driven tech-savvy force.

As Deputy Commissioner of Police at South East District, Delhi, he implemented smart policing reforms integrating IT-enabled functions and mobile based application (e-saathi) to enable a people-friendly, citizen-police interface. Allowing constraint free accessibility and facilitating greater police efficiency, this initiative has been credited for significant minimization of the public trust deficit and enhancing police morale. Embedded with ge-fencing functions, the web and mobile applications of smart policing also provides information and procedural guidance to users.

Aimed at equitable distribution of police service, Shri Randhawa introduced the New Division System redistributing divisions, stations and booths to ensure visible presence and timely response for the convenience of residents. Pushing for wholesome modernization, manual information filing and record keeping were replaced with the e-beat book - a software application for digital record keeping. He also initiated the installation of GPS systems in government vehicles and carried out CCTV installations at strategic locations to improve service quality. Police stations were given the due fillip for gentle and friendly ambience. Recognizing the role of police in youth development, he launched Police Entertainment Team (PET) in localities to interact with the youth and promote healthy activities and has made commendable contributions towards woman safety. His undiluted thrust on preventive planning, beat-in-focus policing, and police-community partnership has led to a drastic fall in heinous crimes.

Shri Randhawa has been instrumental in cracking several high-profile cases including heist, murder and organ racket cases, and holds two Limca Book of Record. His outstanding dedication and commitment has been widely recognized and acclaimed.
